

IGTI ASME JOURNAL SUBSIDY

If you are a current ASME member, and if you have selected the International Gas Turbine Institute (Code #22) as your primary technology interest, then you qualify to receive the ASME Journal of Turbomachinery (TURBO) OR the ASME Journal of Engineering for Gas Turbines & Power (POWER) at a discounted rate. The subsidy can NOT be obtained through the normal membership dues renewal process nor through the normal journal subscription renewal process. When you are directing your request to ASME Customer Care, remember to include your subscription choice and the applicable fee along with your ASME membership number. All amounts shown are in US Dollars.
